

KJA CONGRESS SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

ALUMNI UPDATE

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

The KJA Scholarship Board is proud to present an update on some of our alumni. We hope that you are proud of where your dollars have gone.

Dr. Kristofer Smith

I graduated with honors with a Doctorate of Pharmacy from Florida A&M University on May 3, 2009. I am a pharmacist with Walgreen's in Atlanta, Georgia. God has truly blessed me over these past six years; and I, again, thank the KJA Scholarship Board for providing me with financial aid to help me through school.

Tamekia Stewart

I graduated from the University of Southern MS in Dec of 2008. In March of 2009, I completed the MS Alternate Path for Quality Teachers Program. I teach 6th, 7th, and 8th grade Math and Language Arts for Special Education students at Pearl Jr. High School. I began the Master of Public Health Program with an emphasis in Health Education in the Fall of 2009. God has now opened a door for me to serve as the Scholarship Alumni coordinator in my local church, so I have been actively campaigning and encouraging our youth to apply for awards such as the KJA Scholarship!

Daniel Willis

Since graduation, I accepted a position as an Admissions Representative at my alma mater, The University of Missouri.

Dana Cudjoe

Since graduating with a B.A. in 2005, I am working as a Family Case Manager for Head Start. I am also enrolled in graduate school seeking my M.S.Ed. specializing in School Counseling.

Brian Jackson

Since graduating from Howard University in 2006, I have remained in the Washington, D.C. area. I currently work as an Associate Producer for Comcast SportsNet. I am still working toward my goal of becoming a sports Anchor/Reporter. This process has definitely tested my faith but I know one day I will get there.

Richard Lee

I graduated from Wayne State University in May 2008. I have remained in Detroit where I work for Apple as a Mac Specialist and a trainer. I also am working with youth in many areas and have started a new community outreach initiative.
