MST-103 Nature and Mission of the Church, Spring & online course, Elder James E. Turner, Sr. This course is designed for an intensive study of the early church from the Acts of the Apostles with the view toward the contemporary church fulfilling the role of the church in its truest sense.

FST-105S Committed Women Working for Christ, Fall & online course

Semester Course description: A study of women being committed to the work of Christ with special emphasis given to in-reach and out-reach. In this course, students will explore what it means for women being committed to Christ; how to do in-reach and out-reach by demonstrating love for sisters of faith and the lost; and how to walk worthy for the vocation wherewith Christian women are called. We will study principles of biblical women and explore how to apply these principles in our lives, church and community.

CE- 518 Introduction to Kingdom Principle I: Instructor: Bishop Glake Hill, Jr.

Overview: Jesus declare at the beginning of His ministry that the “Kingdom of God is here”. John the Baptist previously calls for people to repent because of the “Kingdom of God” was coming. We are called as disciples to operate in and represent the Kingdom. But what is the Kingdom? How do we operate in it? Why is it important for us to live from a kingdom perspective? Join Bishop Glake Hill as we explore the basic biblical principles of the Kingdom of Heaven and how that applies to our individual lives. This course is a 10 weeks’ introductory course specifically gear for any believer who wishes to increase their understanding, appreciation, and experience in God’s plan for their lives.
